

From the people I listen to who are not involved financially with BPL, and as a licensed Amateur Radio operator, I join the rest of my community, in protest against BPL, and the positive interference to radio communications that it will create.